Location

The business is situated on a pleasant residential street just to the north of the main shopping centre. Corbridge is one of the most popular towns in the Tyne Valley with a growing local population and strong levels of tourists and visitors throughout the year. Access is easy via the A69 and there is on street parking directly outside the business.

Business

This is an extremely successful restaurant which has been operating within the Tyne Valley for almost 28 years, originally in Prudhoe and then from the current location for the last 14 years. The business has been placed on the market as our clients wish to retire.

The premises are in excellent order and are currently configured to provide three separate spaces; on the ground floor there is a bar and tapas restaurant with circa 30 covers plus a traditional restaurant with up to 70 covers and the main kitchens. On the first floor, with access through the main restaurant, there is a currently unutilised private dining room for up to 60 persons.

The current menu reflects the owner's Sicilian heritage and whilst there is a range of pizza and pasta dishes, there is also a selection of traditional Italian meals and daily specials. The restaurant has an excellent local reputation with loyal regulars and high levels of repeat business and whilst the main trade is generated from the sit in element there are also some collection orders. The business trades on relatively short hours by choice and there is huge scope for a new owner to take this business forward.

Viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the location, layout and potential of this rare opportunity.
