Location

This business is located at the junction of Starbeck Avenue with Helmsley Road in the centre of this extremely popular suburb of Newcastle, less than a mile from the City centre. The immediate area is a mix of good quality private housing with students, families and young professionals comprising the local population.

Business

A traditional fish and chip and hot food takeaway has occupied this site for over 50 years and has won a awards over this period. The current owners acquired the business in 2010 but have placed the business on the market as they wish to reduce their commitments.

In line with the branding, the current menu is compact and concentrates on traditional Fish and Chips with a small range of complementary products. There is a small delivery service which makes up about 30% of the turnover and most of these orders come from their bespoke website. The collection trade is by far the largest contributor, driven by the high levels of nearby housing and free parking. There is scope for a new operator to extend the hours and expand the lines sold with enough prep and sales space to integrate these.

This is a rare market opportunity and would suit a variety of potential owners. Viewing is recommended to appreciate the location and potential.
