Location

The property lies at the end of the pedestrianised section of Ocean Road, at the junction of Anderson Road. Ocean Road is the main route running from King Street down towards the seafront and on a prominent corner.

This area of South Shields is home to a very high concentration of restaurant and food operators. Further east, Ocean Road has undergone some significant investment with new parking bays and improved accessibility.

There is a mix of leisure, shop and office space in the immediate area and further east on Ocean Road there are residential dwellings, guest houses and hotels. Depending on the new use, all of these existing occupiers could generate trade.

Business Opportunity

This bar and function room would be suitable for a number of uses and whilst the ground floor is in reasonable order, the upper floors would require some refurbishment prior to being brought back into use. The landlord would offer rent incentives in order that this could be achieved.
