Location

The property is located at the junction of Battle Hill with St Mary's Chare the heart of this very popular market town approximately 15 miles due west of Newcastle upon Tyne.

The town is characterised by stone architecture, cobbled streets and historic buildings with a blend of boutiques, high street favourites and regular outdoor markets.

There are numerous restaurants and coffee shops within a town which also benefits from its own racecourse, theatre, cinema, golf course and leisure centre. There is also a busy railway station with regular services to Newcastle and Carlisle.

Property:

This Grade 2 listed property comprises a four storey stone built corner building with a two storey extension and single storey block to the rear.
