Location

The premises are located on Bridge Street, in the heart of this bustling and popular Northumberland market town. Morpeth is situated circa 15 miles due north of the Newcastle upon Tyne.

There is direct and straightforward access directly from the A1 and a mainline railway station that provides daily services to both London and Edinburgh. The town has a growing local population attracted by new housing developments on the outskirts.

Description

The premises comprise a self-contained three storey mid terraced building of traditional brick construction with a pitched slate roof over. The configuration allows for both retail and office use and there is a kitchen and separate toilets installed. The unit could be suitable for other uses, subject to landlord's consent and planning.
