Location

This property and business opportunity forms part of a small suburban shopping area located in the heart of Blackfell Village, one of the suburbs that make up the town of Washington. The immediate area comprises predominantly residential accommodation but there are other commercial occupiers nearby including a very busy convenience store. The shopping parade has the benefit of a designated car park, and the shop unit can also be easily accessed from the rear which helps support the delivery element.

Business

This takeaway has been trading from the location for many years but has operated under our client's ownership since 2020. The business has been placed on the market as the current operator now wishes to retire.

The premises are in excellent order and the public service area has been styled as a traditional fish and chip shop. The majority of the trade is from collection (70%) with the rest generated by deliveries via JUST EAT and UBER EAT. The unit is spacious with a couple of separate prep areas, a store and a shower room.

The current menu is relatively compact but in addition to the fish and chips offer there are a range of pizza, kebabs and burgers. The business has a loyal customer base from the village residents and the regular customers from further away are supported by the delivery service.

This is a rare to the market freehold hot food opportunity with scope for development and growth.
